- ◆ Searching for a used offset printing press continues, please pray the right one turns up at the right time.
 - ◆ The local church we attend just purchased their own building after renting one for 25 years. Much remodeling and money is needed to make it usable, but all are enthusiastic about it.
 - ◆ There has been an increase in the virus here, please pray that we and the others at the printshop stay healthy and are able to work and travel about as needed.
