THANK YOU to each and every one of you that has contributed to the Hesston Resource Center this past year. We are so grateful for the support this church community has given us. All the food donations, financial donations, gifts of time, and certainly the prayer support has been such a blessing. We have been able to serve our community in a very tangible way through the generosity of your church. May God bless you in the coming year,
Rae King,
Hesston Resource Center Director
