THANK YOU:

We are so blessed to be a part of such a wonderful group of caring Christians. A brief update on my health. After genetic tests drs. have confirmed that my food produces only about 1/4 of normal energy levels. Pray that my body will respond well to specific nutrition which my body doesn't produce enough of. This will most likely be a long process. Of course God is in control for which we are very thankful. Thank you for your concern and prayers. God bless each of you.
