FAITH AT WORK CHALLENGE:

We are at the half way mark with our FAITH AT WORK CHALLENGE! Hopefully, many of you are crossing off the squares as you have been more intentional in working out an active Faith this summer. Two of the key elements of the challenge are EVANGELISM AND FELLOWSHIP. This week our challenge is to reach out to our neighbors and friends with the gift of hospitality. If you have someone in your life who is not a believer this would be a great time to open your home and your life with the light of the Gospel. This will push many of us out of our comfort zone, but be reminded of the calling that Jesus has placed before us!! Families with children, you too can participate in this challenge by hosting a play date or a simple backyard picnic...Two more of your challenge squares which could be checked off!! Radical hospitality sees strangers as neighbors, neighbors as friends and friends as the family of God.

BREAKFAST FELLOWSHIP: Join us for breakfast and a time of fellowship on July 21st from 8:15-9:15 in the fellowship hall.

SENIOR ADULT MINISTRY: Join us as we see God at Work Around the World on July 27th at 6 p.m. in the fellowship hall. Elwyn & Linda Goossen will be sharing about the ministry in Brazil. A Love Offering will be taken for a project. Cost of supper is $8. Please RSVP by July 21st to Bill & Sharon Mierau, Verne & Janet Voth, or Aaron & Elisabeth Smith.

THANK YOUS:

The Goossen family greatly appreciates the outpouring of love and concern for us during this difficult time. The delicious meals, other food items and disposable products gave us treasured family time. Your visits and prayers blessed us so much. Thank you!

Once again a sincere thank you to all who pitched in to prepare and/or serve a meal at New Hope Shelter this past week. You are the greatest!!

~Sharon Mierau
